

Two Planes Crash

A Mexican jet airliner DC-8, bound for Mexico, crashed and burned after takeoff from Idlewild airport in New York last night, killing an estimated seven persons. According to early reports, 99 miraculously survived the crash and some were only slightly injured. The plane, taking off in a blizzard, faltered a few seconds after takeoff and crashed into a marsh three miles from the airport.

An Air Force B-52 bomber, on a routine flight from El Paso, Tex., exploded in the air over northeastern Utah last night. Five crew members were believed dead. The pilot and co-pilot reportedly parachuted to safety. In a brief statement, an Air Force spokesman said there were no nuclear weapons aboard the plane. No reason was given for the explosion.

Special Report:

Budget Increase May 'Equalize' Education

By JAY THORWALDSON

A $51 million requested increase in California school aid apparently has experts and state legislators puzzled over where it may be coming from.

Legislators have said that they are increasingly looking to the federal government to help pay for the state's school bill.

One of the problems the state faces, Dr. Frederic Weed, head department of Political Science, stated, is that the state constitution "often limits the power of school districts and cities to tax or borrow" to meet increasing needs.

To change the constitution, he said, legislative consent is required. However, he added, the legislature is "usually rural controlled and not always sympathetic with the aims of districts and cities."

Approximately $21 million of the requested increase, according to Dr. J. Russell Kent, associate professor of Education, would be raised by transferring "wealthy" school districts within counties to equalize school district fund sources. The remainder, he said, would come from general state revenues or, if an aid bill is passed, from the federal government.

FUND DISTRIBUTION

Distribution of the funds, he said, includes about $36 million to go to "increasing the amount of state aid to districts in the support of individual pupil attendance. The balance would go to programs for handicapped and gifted children and for pupil transportation."

Citing a "100 to one variation" school districts, Dr. Kent stated in fund raising power of California that the $21 million raised from the transfer of districts is "an extension of the principal of a state equalizing mechanism" already in existence.

"We must assume at the start that the state has a responsibility to give every child an adequate education." To do this, he said, every school must have adequate funds.

Pointing out that the only tax schools can levy is the property tax, Dr. Kent stated, "There are districts in California with so little property on their tax rolls that, at $1 per $100 assessed valuation, they can raise less than $10 per pupil per year." Others, however, can raise "over $1000," he said.

FEDERAL AID

Dr. William G. Sweeney, dean division of Education, stated that there has been a move in the direction of federal aid "for some time."

Although the local taxpayer seems willing to support the schools, Dean Sweeney stated, "He will come to the end of the rope in his ability to support them."

"What educators want," he said, "is federal aid without federal control."

Expressing similar opinions, Dr. Lowell G. Keith, head department of Elementary Education, stated that he would be "in support of federal assistance to education if it can be brought about in a way which would not dictate local policies and programs of education."

He did not know of any other source for the needed funds, he stated, unless the state tapped other tax areas that presently have a light tax.

Office Will Mail Grade Reports

The registrar's office has announced that fall semester grade reports will be mailed to students requesting them.

Registrar John C. Montgomery said students wishing such reports may obtain an envelope in the registrar's office and fill out their name and address. All envelopes must have a four cent stamp placed on it. Grades will be mailed at 5 p.m., Feb. 10.

Students who do not wish to leave envelopes may pick up their grades on Monday, Feb. 13.

The registrar cautioned that grade reports are unofficial. Official grades are available by transcript.

Transcripts requested at the "official transcript" window before Jan. 31 will be mailed by Feb. 20, he said.

'Offers Rare Opportunity'

Zen Priest Plans Course In Far East Philosophy

By ANN PHILLIPS

Dr. Kazumitsu Kato came to the United States to serve as a priest in a Zen temple in San Francisco. He had so few duties that he enrolled in the American Academy of Asian Studies in that city to pass the time. He earned his Ph.D. and turned to teaching.

Although still affiliated with the Buddhist temple, Dr. Kato will be teaching Humanities and philosophy courses next semester at SJS.

RARE OPPORTUNITY

"Here is a rare opportunity for students to benefit," said Dr. Harris Martin, assistant professor of history, speaking of one course in particular—Humanities 103B.

This spring semester course deals with the art, literature, history and philosophy of Japan and China. It is a three-unit general education course, open to any student of sophomore status or higher.

There are no prerequisites and the class has unlimited capacity.

BROAD INTRODUCTION

"The course offers a broad introduction into the background of Chinese-Japanese civilization and analyzes the changes occurring during the 19th and 20th centuries," according to Dr. Martin. "Through his classical education, Dr. Kato has profound knowledge of traditional Japanese-Chinese civilization."

SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

VOL. 48

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 1961

NO. 66

SCIENTIFIC PLAY—That's what college is supposed to be, according to a song from the musical revue, "So This Is College." The song-and-dance show, including Marjorie Brown and David Lindstrom, above, plays again tonight at 8:30 in Morris Dailey auditorium. Tickets are $1.

Girls—Jokes—Dances

Musical Revue a Hit: 'College Attractive'

By WALLACE WOOD

If the musical revue "So This Is College?" goes overseas as a result of tonight's audition performance, the lucky servicemen can only conclude that college is a very, very attractive place indeed.

It seems almost impossible that student life could produce so many pretty girls, good music, good dancing and some funny jokes all at once. But somehow Gus C. Lease, associate professor of music, and the Associated Glee clubs managed to do just that—and turn in a spicy, yet wholesomely entertaining show last night in Morris Dailey Auditorium.

PRETENSE IN COLLEGE

Actually, "So This Is College?" ought to be investigated by some on-campus activities committee. Not only did the production abandon all pretense of college with the first song, but it displayed the songs and manners of half-a-dozen countries.

The stand-out performer was not a single person at all, but the combined cast and its generally superb singing. Nevertheless, the men in the Rigoletto Quartet ("Rigoletto, let us go!") were called back for one encore and had to refuse a second.

It remained for Bill Purkiss, Ken Hunter and Gatlin Howell to bring down the house with what could have been a flagrantly indecent "Fan Dance." It would certainly be welcomed overseas. Nevertheless, David Lindstrom, J. D. Nichols, Robert Cunningham and John McIntyre deserved a hand for singing "Heart and Soul," "Blue Moon," "Santa Catalina" and "Oh Happy Day" at the same time, but in perfect harmony while practically ignoring each other.

A BROWN IN BLACK

The women must not be forgotten either, since they never are forgotten by the boys in uniform. Margie Brown, in black tights singing "Hey Daddy!", was all the advance publicity pictured her to be; but the appreciative audience saw all too little of her and heard her sultry voice too infrequently. Pat Carpio, in an equally pleasing Spanish costume, stood out, perhaps, a little incongruously by breaking in on a hofbrau scene of beer-drinkers.

The cast in general deserves the credit, however, for their dancing and music carried the revue, and many had chances for individual performance. Their names deserve inclusion on their own merits because of their generally good performances.

Included in the chorus and dancers were: Marjorie Brown, Patricia Carpio, Ione Cheese-

Picture-Choice Cards For La Torre Due

Seniors and Greeks should return picture-choice postcards to the La Torre office, J6, immediately, according to La Torre Greek editor Gretchen Grube.

Those who have just had their pictures taken must get their postcards in as soon as they receive them. Students who have not sent in postcards by Feb. 1 will not have a picture in the year-book.

Ten Campus Locations Showing Inauguration on Television Today

There are more invitations to President Kennedy's inaugural ceremonies today than there are tickets available, it has been reported. But the SJS student and faculty's passport to view the gala affair can be found in any of several locations on campus where television sets have been placed.

At a suggestion by Dr. Leo P. Kibby, chairman, area of the social sciences, TV sets have been made available in S142 from 7:30 to 11:20 a.m. and in M125 from 7:30 until 10:20 a.m. A set in the Studio Theater, SD103, will be turned on from 8 a.m. until noon. Sets in each dorm will be available during the same hours.

Another location will be in A216 where viewers can watch the ceremonies from 7:30 until 9:20 a.m. Festivities have already begun in the nation's capital where thousands of persons have made their way to sing, dance and toast Kennedy into the White House. Visitors have swarmed into the sidewalks and restaurants to await the inauguration. Motels and hotels have been sold out for several weeks.

BROWN IN D.C.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California was one of the many who has found difficulty in obtaining tickets to the ceremonies and ball. He appeared in Washington, D.C., with a big California contingent with an invitation which was not replaced with a ticket for some-time.

He will ride at the head of the California representation in the inaugural parade. Following will be the Capuchino high school band from San Bruno, the Lompoc high school band and the St. Mary's Chinese girls' Drum and Glockenspiel corps, from San Francisco.

Unprecedented rounds of parties and receptions have been given since Tuesday. An example of the mounting clamor can be seen by one party having sent only 400 invitations but receiving 600 guests. Another party was reported to have cost California Democratic party finance chairman Bart Lytton $20,000.

The inaugural parade committee, reportedly amazingly calm, appears confident everything is going to go off all right. The committee has handed out an 84-page pamphlet of instructions which include everything from space between autos and marching units to final arrangements for two horse ambulances to take care of the 274 horses, mules and burros that will parade.

HOLLYWOOD CREW

Several entertainers have already arrived in the Capital including Frank Sinatra, Diana Lynn, Gene Barry and Ilona Massey.

Kennedy will be the first Catholic President ever in the United States and will be the youngest to take the oath of office since Theodore Roosevelt.

He won the electoral vote in December by a sizable margin but was first in the national popular election in November by a scant 200,000 votes.

Dr. Frederic Weed, head of the political science dept., said he was "glad that the Catholic jinx has been broken." He said Kennedy has made it "a point to invite several intellectuals, scholars and celebrities to his inauguration, unlike several of his predecessors."

He pointed out that the two major parts of the inauguration ceremonies to watch are the oath of office administered to Kennedy by Chief Justice Earl Warren, and the new President's State of the Union message.

'Drop Dixon Case' -NAACP Leader

Dr. Leo English, San Jose physician and president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, yesterday told the Spartan Daily that the St. John Dixon case should now be left alone.

The Negro leader was a guest at the annual reception for foreign students, held in the Spartan cafeteria.

"He is here. That is the important thing," Dr. English stated. He placed the blame for continuation of the issue on the people who brought him to SJS.

"Now he should do a little on his own," Dr. English said, adding, "He should get out and hustle like some of the rest." About the money raised to aid Dixon next semester, Dr. English stated that some financial aid should be given, but that "funds for such students need not be."

Sororities Announce Open Bidding Dates

Open bidding for SJS sororities for the spring semester will run from Feb. 19 to March 9, according to Dean Janet Douglas of the activities office.

Interested students may register for rushing in the Activities Office, Adm242, anytime between Monday and Feb. 17.

Instructors Favor Sabbatical Law Repeal 22-2 in Daily Poll

A poll of 30 SJS instructors taken by the Spartan Daily shows 22 favor repeal of the present state law limiting sabbatical leaves to 5 per cent of all eligible faculty members at any state college annually.

Two instructors were against repeal, three classified themselves as undecided and three had no comment.

Dr. Harold M. Hodges, associate professor of sociology, is one who emphatically supports the change to sabbatical parity with the University of California recently advocated by Dr. William F. Stanton, associate professor of economics, and Dr. Richard G. Tansey, professor of art and president of the American Federation of Teachers.

ONE OUT OF 20

Under the present sabbatical law one out of 20 eligible faculty members at SJS is able to go on leave in any academic year. Consequently, under the law, it would take between 20 and 30 years before every eligible instructor is granted a sabbatical leave.

Dr. Tansey had previously pointed out that at UC a sabbatical is granted "with regularity" at the rate of one semester after three years of teaching or two semesters after six years. He said that in the state college system "sabbatical payment is 50 per cent of the regular salary, whereas in the university system . . . payment is two-thirds of the regular salary."

According to Dr. Hodges, "The current disparity between our sabbatical systems is a telling barometer of the disparity in our respective academic statuses. The UC sabbatical system connotes that school's greater concern for

'Mistress of the Inn' To Tour February

"Mistress of the Inn," current production of the SJS Speech and Drama department, will go on tour during semester break. The play will be presented Feb. 10 at Stanford and Feb. 18 at Cal Davis.

A TV adaptation of the play also is set for Feb. 25 on KNTV's "Perspective" series.

DEPARTMENT OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

Chairman Steve Larson

RALLY COMMITTEE

Chuck Butters, chairman, reports the following: the rally of Friday, Jan. 6, was unsuccessful due to the absence of the Pep band and lack of attendance. Cheer leaders and song girls attended but were unable to hold the rally.

A rally is scheduled for Feb. 14, during orientation week in the Men's gym. Efforts are being made to obtain the services of a band for the rally. A new head song girl will be appointed at the next meeting.

Note: The absence of the Pep band is being investigated by the executive secretary and the chairman of student affairs.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

Deann Kinnear, chairman, reports the following: during the week, contact had been made with the fairgrounds concerning the availability of April 7 for the Associated Independent Students, Social Affairs committee, and the University of Santa Clara dance. This date was cleared and plans are in progress for a joint meeting next semester to discuss details. Dan Bryant, SAC chairman at the University of Santa Clara had been informed. The work will be divided between the three organizations and the proceeds will be donated to each one's worthy local organization.

Contact was also made with a booking agent from Los Angeles. We are expecting a list of availabilities within the next two weeks. However, he did state that we would be guaranteed a "drawing" attraction for the April 13 or 14 date. Decision is pending the letter.

The fairgrounds were also contacted regarding the conditions or conflicts involved in presenting a carnival after pushcarts. As yet, there is nothing definite but a dance and possibly a barbecue is being considered if the carnival idea has to be eliminated.

CULTURAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

Bill Nelson, chairman, made the following report: Dr. Orem presented his program for the Spring 1961 film classics series and it was unanimously approved by the committee.

The Byron Janis program for Sunday, Feb. 19 was discussed. Nelson said that he had received ASB Pres. Pat McClenahan's approval to charge a 50-cent admission price for the next program. Bob Ginn and his committee are handling the publicity for both the Janis program and the Jose Limon program on Feb. 26. The fact that the Janis program is scheduled for the weekend before Spring semester begins was discussed, as it was felt this might limit student attendance. It was decided that, if it appeared that there were not going to be he expected college turnout, the program would be opened to the public.

A block of seats will be set aside for the Jose Limon program for the guests who will be present at that time for the modern dance symposium, sponsored by the physical education department.

The remainder of the meeting was spent suggesting and discussing prospective artists for the Fall 1961 programs.

The next meeting is set for today, 2:30 p.m.

DEPARTMENT OF ORIENTATION AND LEADERSHIP

POLICY STATEMENT: When two consecutive weekly reports are missed, it will be assumed that the chairman is incapable of carrying out the responsibilities and trusts inherent in the office, and when this occurs a recommendation to replace the chairman will be made to the ASB president.

ORIENTATION COMMITTEE

Stephanie Williams, chairman, reports that on Jan. 11 the Orientation committee held a meeting 6:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. The final plans for Spring orientation are completed.

The student leaders arrived at the meeting 7 p.m. for a training program.

The next meeting was Wednesday in the conference room of the Administration building.

Weekend radio and TV fare includes the Orchestral dance group on Saturday's Perspective show over KNTV at 10 a.m. On Sunday Dr. Leonard Feldman, assistant professor of mathematics explains multiplication, division, and fractions, also over KNTV at 11:30 a.m.

Sunday evening, Showcase San Jose State, campus-produced radio show, goes out over KLOK at 9:30. Pearce Davis, associate professor of journalism, and songs from Mozart's "Così Fan Tutti," with the Opera Workshop cast, will be featured.

Mrs. Carol Smith and Peggy Lawler will direct 20 male and female dancers in an explanation of "Contemporary Dance" on the Perspective show Saturday. They will attempt to show contemporary dance as a "movement of life."

Dr. Feldman is scheduled to explain some new concepts for elementary teachers in demonstrating the mathematics of multiplication, division, and fractions over "Exploration," Sunday morning.

Thrust and Parry

'Two Sides to Story,' Says Student

EDITOR — Jim Kelley's view of the Southern integration issue only makes it clear that there are two sides to every story.

He states that integration cannot be accomplished overnight. Agreed, but there have been more than 125,000 nights and days since the first Negroes were brought to this country in 1619. Likewise, almost 100,000 nights have passed since the Constitution guaranteed equal rights to all in 1788.

It hardly seems plausible then, that integrationists could be accused of "forcing" the issue. The mistake made by Mr. Kelley and others is in perceiving integration as merely an upsetting, threatening crisis in their own lifetimes. In reality, it is the culmination of a long, dreary effort in behalf of human rights. The standing still and the backward sliding are only now being compensated for by forward movement.

Mr. Kelley also says that he understands the Southern problem since he has lived there. It seems that he and other Southerners may not be able to see the forest for the trees. They may be so emotionally involved with the situation that they are no longer capable of judging it objectively.

Certainly the contention that "Yankees" (anyone living north of the Mason-Dixon line) are "nuts" and do not care about the Southern situation is not supported by fact.

It is precisely because they do care and because they are not content to sit back and watch the proceedings in the South earn an unfavorable reputation for the whole country, that they are making their opinions known.

When persons such as Mr. Kelley realize that this problem is one of national concern, they may no longer object to, in fact may even welcome, any advice which will bring about a swift and sure solution.

NEW AUTO INSURANCE SAVINGS ANNOUNCED

Savings up to $120 on automobile insurance is now common for married men under 25 years of age with the California Casualty Indemnity Exchange.

"Married men in this age bracket are generally paying excessive premiums for the degree of risk involved," says George M. Campbell, Spartan Representative for the Exchange.

"We believe that a married man with family responsibilities is a more careful driver, and causes fewer accidents," said Campbell. "Therefore, he is entitled to rates for mature drivers." For example: A married man, age 22 with Bodily Injury Liability $10/20,000, Property Damage $5,000 and Medical $500 pays about $157 a year with most insurance companies. With California Casualty he would pay about $80 less $16 dividend, or a net of $64 (based on current 20 per cent dividend). Thus he saves about $93 with the Exchange. [Other coverages with comparable savings.] Campbell declared that even unmarried men and women with good driving records may save over 20 per cent. Call or write for full information to George M. Campbell, 556 Maple Ave., Sunnyvale, Regent 9-1741 (day & nite).

Grapplers Tiff Tribe Today

Mat mentor Hugh Mumby expects his wrestling team to be at full strength tonight when the grapplers take on Stanford's Indians at 7:30 on the Palo Alto campus. The Tribe, not considered a strong mat squad, will be a threat in one respect. They have not produced a win over a San Jose State wrestling team in the last decade.

Mumby, who took over the wrestling helm in 1950, will send out Dave Armstrong in the 123-pound class and will follow with a new addition to his team in the 130 division. Byron Kobayashi will make his first varsity appearance in the 130 weight class for SJS.

At 137 the Spartans have defeated Bob Lopez, who was one of three State grapplers to post wins against Bear matmen in the 16-11 loss to Cal a week ago. The other two were Bernie Slate and Paul Hodgins, also undefeated this season.

LeRoy Stewart, one of Mumby's stalwarts, will still be on the sidelines, but Jerry Quinlan is considered a capable replacement by Mumby in the 147 class.

Jerry Nelson is the Spartans' 157-pounder and at 167, Fred Yrueta will get the call.

Burly Bernie Slate, a rugged customer in the 177 category, will be a strong contender for laurels, along with heavyweight entry, Paul Hodgins.—G.P.

EX-SPARTANS IN THE NEWS—Oncal Cuterry, star San Jose State halfback in 1958 and '59, was signed to a professional contract by the Oakland (AFL) Raiders Tuesday. The former Castlemont high prep whiz averaged about five yards a carry for the '59 SJS eleven with his pro-style running. A fierce competitor, Cuterry could make it big with the East Bay pros.

Golfer Ken Venturi, state amateur champ and a member of the U.S. Walker Cup team while a student at SJS, is out to retain his title in the 20th annual Bing Crosby tourney which began yesterday. Don't bet too many chips on Ken, though, there's a fellow named Arnold Palmer teeing off too.

Whitney Reed, 1959 NCAA singles champ, has been the talk of a current tennis tour through the southeastern United States. Recently named the top amateur in Northern California, Reed has justified that honor by winning the singles title in a key Florida tourney over the weekend and downing former star Gardner Mulloy to win the Dixie International singles crown in Tampa Jan. 8.

Dan Colchico, a hard-nosed gridder on 1957-59 SJS teams, is due for a pay boost from his San Francisco 49er employers. As a rookie in 1960, Colchico was a first string defensive end for the Prospectors throughout the NFL season and was one of the mainstays of the defense that was the stingiest in professional football. Now, if the local pros only had an offense...

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING—George Gallup, director of the famous Gallup polls, reveals that baseball, football, and basketball (in that order) remain as the top three TV spectator sports in comparing a recently conducted 1960 poll to a survey taken in 1948, the year television first started its vast sports coverage.

In 1948, 39 per cent of the people interviewed favored baseball, as compared to 17 per cent for football, and 10 per cent for basketball. This year, baseball received 34 per cent of the votes, football was awarded 21 per cent, and the cage sport slipped to 9 per cent.

In a battle of the sexes, baseball is the men's top sport with 41 per cent of the males preferring the diamond antics. Women, too, prefer baseball, but only 27 per cent of the females list it as their favorite.

UNSUNG HEROES DEPT.—Of the three most surprising aspects in our current cage season (the team's swift adaptation to ball control basketball, enthusiastic student support, and the Spartan pep band) the one most underrated for its contribution to the hoop campaign has been the spirited band.

Under the capable direction of Roger Muzzy, assistant professor of music, the band has added color to augment an improved rooting section, thus giving the Spartan basketball team an inspiration to play its best.

Its snappy renditions remind us of Cal's famous Straw Hat Band, which has a reputation for being among the best college bands in the nation. Muzzy's musicians have the potential to reach that status within a few years if their spirit continues.

Rookie coach Stu Inman has nothing but praise for the pep band. "The band was significant in our win at Stockton last weekend," he said. "In that small pavilion most of the fans were for Pacific. Hearing our band through all that noise was certainly encouraging."

FAN MAIL DEPT.—Received last week from one of our unidentified supporters: "Regarding your report of the weekly sportswriters' meeting, and your assertion that Meschery (Tom) scored '18 digits in a basketball game.' What a phenomenal scorer! Imagine 100,000,000-000,000,000 points! In one game, yet."

What we REALLY meant was 600,000,000,000,000,018 points, avid reader, but we stand corrected anyway.

SPORTS IN SOCIETY—The other day while accidentally looking at the society page in the Spartan Daily, we ran across an interesting little ditty under the "pinnings" column. The article casually printed, "Salli Nawman, Chi Omega junior elementary education major, from El Cerrito, to Bob Gaillard, junior business administration major from USF."

Just like the society page. The fact that Gaillard was voted the Most Valuable Player in last month's WCAC tourney and that he put 294 DIGITS through the nets while being voted all-WCAC as a soph last year is of no importance to a society page reader.

We wonder who Salli roots for when the Spartans play USF? Not hard to imagine.

A SURE HIT—National sports heroes Paul Hornung, Willie Kirkland, and Monte Stiekles forming a vocal trio and selling a million with "Daddy Cool." Or else, if they want to attain even greater heights, they could add Bobo Olson to the group and call themselves "The Four Fresh-Men." No?

Winter Speaks

Spikers Urged To Prep For Inter-Class Meet

Track coach Bud Winter urges fraternities and independents to begin preparing for the annual inter-class track meet slated for Feb. 24. The meet, which traditionally kicks off the track and field season for the Spartans, gives SJS students an outstanding opportunity to compete with San Jose State varsity and frosh spikers on an even keel.

San Jose again promises to be one of the outstanding teams in the nation and Winter and assistant coach Vern Wolfe are working daily with the spikers, in an attempt to return track supremacy to San Jose State.

Winter, highly enthusiastic over the annual meet, held a player draft last week and chose five combined varsity-frosh teams to spark competition in the trackfest.

Infielders Join Moundsmen, Catchers in Workouts Today

Infielders join pitchers and catchers today as Coach Ed Sobczak takes another step toward readying his 1960 WCAC baseball champions for defense of their crown.

Sobczak worked the hurlers and backstops alone the first week, hoping his moundsmen would be ready to throw batting practice by the time outfielders make their appearance Monday.

Only Bill Inderbitzen will be missing from last season's starting infield, as Doug McChesney, Tom Rike, Larry Tognolini, and Larry Bashfu all return to bolster the Spartan nine. McChesney and Rike provided the one-two punch in the line-up last year with marks of .346 and .333, respectively.

A flock of other candidates are expected to battle for the four infield berths.

Judiciary Establishing 'Lower Courts'—Hauck

The establishment of "lower courts" of the ASB Judiciary is "now in process," Chief Justice Bill Hauck recently stated in a report to the ASB.

Groups affected, he said, include the inter-fraternity council, associated women students, panhellenic, associated independent students and the dorms. Also included, he indicated, are the election board and the student activities board (SAB).

The IFC court, Hauck stated, is being "completely revamped so that house president will no longer have to serve on the court." Instead, he said, it will "be selected and set up much the way the Judiciary is."

Panhellenic, he stated, "will continue to handle all of the cases it handled in the past but will not take on any additional responsibilities." Sorority rush violations, he stated, have been its chief area of jurisdiction.

"If cases of an individual nature arise," he indicated, "they will be handled by the AWS court," which, he said, is "already well organized." All that remains, he said, "is for them to gain student government sanction as a judicial board."

AIS and the dorms are still in the "planning stage," Hauck reported, stating that AIS will be ready with a "basic system" by the end of the semester, but that it is "doubtful" when the dorms will be able to function.

The election board, he said, handles cases of election irregularities, and the SAB handles procedural violations of campus organizations and groups.

"REPEAL UNNECESSARY"
On the other hand, Dr. Marston A. Girard, head of the Health and Hygiene department, said he believes repeal is unnecessary because "the present regulations are still applicable."

SJS Dance Group To Perform Sunday

Kolo dances done by campus folk dance group—Balkansko Udrzenstvo, will begin at 7 p.m. Sunday during the Golden Poppy folk dance festival at Civic auditorium. Dr. John B. Britz, assistant English professor, will be the group's leader.

"Most Balkan dances are quite lively and start with one couple, to the point where as many as four couples join the pattern," says Mrs. Helen E. Doerr, assistant P.E. professor who directs the Thursday night group.

This group, she reports, has worked up a special Portuguese number called "Baile da Comache," for the festival.

"The costumes are very colorful and authentic," she reports.

Polly Danielson is student leader of "Baile da Comache." Other student dancers will be Randy Torre, Cathy Bromge, Mike Jackson, Judy Castiglione, Kent Williams, and Marie York.

Festival admission is free and all are invited to watch or to join in.

Dance Tonight

Senior class will sponsor a dance tonight from 8 p.m. to midnight in the Women's gym to award trophies to winners of the "Joe College-Betty Coed" contest.

Education Students Advising Continues

Pre-advisement for all kindergarten, primary and general elementary students is being conducted through Jan. 26.

Dr. Lowell G. Keith, head, elementary education department, urges these people to see their assigned counselors as soon as possible to prepare for next semester registration and student teaching programs.

Community-Sponsored

Students Offered Travel In International Program

Those who "adjust quickly, have a spirit of adventure and a genuine desire to make a personal contribution to national understanding" are invited to compete for a community-sponsored trip to the country of their choice this summer.

Three "student ambassadors" were selected from Santa Clara county last year to visit Japan, India and the Netherlands, says Dr. Raymond W. Stanley, associate professor of geography, who was a board member.

This year, "Experiment in International Living," a national organization, and "Pacific Neighbors," a similar group, will combine fundraising efforts on the community ambassador program, Dr. Stanley reports.

REQUIREMENTS

Interested students should fill out applications with Dr. Stanley, CH229. "They must be Santa Clara county residents, at least 18 and seriously interested," he said.

The program's main purpose is to foster inter-cultural relations. Those who go generally "prepare ahead, learn a little about the country they will visit and its customs," Dr. Stanley went on.

"Tourists don't get to know a nation's people very well," he maintained.

MONTH ABROAD

Ambassador applicants may indicate three choices in countries they wish to visit, but are not guaranteed to get even the third, unless conditions and costs are favorable, according to Dr. Stanley.

"On location," a group of about 100, meets once a week to compare notes with others living with a foster family there, chosen beforehand by the "Experiment" organization. After "living as close to native fashion as possible" for about a month, they must say goodbye," Dr. Stanley said.

At this time, one member of each family joins the ambassador group for a country-wide tour, or perhaps a visit to neighboring lands. Martha Allhouse, for example, a participant on a former

'Sounds of Protest' Presented Sunday As Rebuttal to 'Operation Abolition'

"Sounds of Protest," an on-the-spot recording of the demonstrations against the house committee on un-American activities last May in San Francisco, will be sponsored by four campus religious groups Sunday.

The recording is intended as a rebuttal to the film "Operation Abolition," which claims students who demonstrated against HCUA were influenced by Communists. It will be offered at 6:55 p.m. at the Christian center, 300 S. 10th st.

Wesley foundation, Canterbury assn., United Campus Christian fellowship and the Lutheran Student assn., will sponsor the recording.

A former FBI agent, the Rev. Ward McCabe, vicar of St. Mark's Episcopal church, will discuss the committee, the recording and the film, according to the Rev. Henry Gerner, Methodist campus minister.

The recording and speech, open to all students and faculty, will be followed by an open discussion. "Sounds of Protest" is distributed by SLATE, a campus political party at the University of California.

Supper is available at 6 p.m. for 50 cents, said the Reverend Gerner.

'Honest Skeptic' Discussed Sunday

Leonard Kirkegaard, a graduate of the University of California and the Starr King school for the Ministry, will lead the third in a series of discussions on "Religion and the Honest Skeptic" Sunday.

The talk, sponsored by the Liberal Religious students, is scheduled for 8 p.m. at the First Unitarian church, 160 N. Third st.

All students, regardless of religious affiliation, are invited to the talk, said Gerald Hansen, acting treasurer of the group.

Mr. Kirkegaard received A.B. degrees in psychology, philosophy and engineering from U.C.

Dr. Kibby Publishes Civil War Reference

A book review reference listing about 450 volumes dealing with the Civil War has been published by Dr. Leo Kibby, chairman, social science area.

A Civil War scholar and member of California's Civil War centennial committee, Dr. Kibby in the foreword writes that the book's purpose is to help students select quality reading material dealing with the war. The title: "Book Review References for a Decade of Civil War Books, 1950-1960."

The list may be especially helpful, Dr. Kibby believes, in view of the deluge of books about the War Between the States published in the past 10 years.

Dr. Kibby's volume is on sale in the social science section of the Spartan book store. It also is featured in a main floor display.

could each student be assured of the personalized attention, the camaraderie, the feeling of belonging, that is all too often lacking in higher education.

Well sir, things went along swimmingly until one Saturday a few years ago. On this day, Crimscott had a football game scheduled against Minnesota, its traditional rival. Football was, of course, something of a problem at Crimscott, what with only four students enrolled in the entire college. It was easy enough to muster a backfield, but finding a good line—or even a bad line—baffled the most resourceful coaching minds in the country.

Well sir, on the morning of the big game against Minnesota, its traditional rival, a capricious destiny dealt Crimscott a cruel blow—in fact, four cruel blows. Sigafoos, the quarterback, woke up that morning with the breakbone fever. Richards, the slotback, was unable to start his motorcycle. Beerholm-Tree, the wingback-tailback, got his necktie caught in his espresso machine. Langerhans, the fullback, was stolen by gypsies.

Consequently, alas, none of the Crimscott team showed up at the game, and Minnesota, its traditional rival, was able to score almost at will. Crimscott was so out of sorts that they immediately broke off football relations with Minnesota, its traditional rival. This later became known as the Dred Scott Decision.

So you can see how only four students might be too small an enrollment. The number I personally favor is twenty. How come? Because when you have twenty students and one of them opens a pack of Marlboro Cigarettes, there are enough to go around for everybody, and no one has to be deprived of Marlboro's fine, mild flavor, of Marlboro's easy-drawing filter, of Marlboro's joy and zest and steadfast companionship, and as a result you have a student body that is filled with sweet content and amity and harmony and concord and togetherness and soft pack and flip-top box.

That's how come.

You will also find twenty cigarettes—twenty incomparable unfiltered king-size cigarettes—in each pack of Marlboro's new partner in pleasure—the Philip Morris Commander. Welcome aboard!
